EDITORIAL

The last Hymn sung to celebrate the life of Frank Williams was based on the prayer of Saint Frances of Assisi; I have copied it under wit and wisdom. Frank was one of the most positive people I have ever met. I never heard him say an unkind word about anyone. I asked him once why he always seemed so happy. Frank and his family lost their home and all their belongings when he was eight. Unlike many others they escaped with their lives. Frank told me he was happy every morning just to be alive, and have another day to enjoy. I try and remind myself of his words whenever I am feeling disgruntled.

PARISH NEWS

"Hello

Notices have been placed on the parish notice boards giving details of the forthcoming Police and Crime Commissioner election. For anybody unable to travel to a notice board, it will be held on Thursday 15th November. Widegates Reading Room has recently been identified by Cornwall Council to remain as an election hub and so I would anticipate it will be used for this election. Should I hear differently, I will place notices on the notice boards.

I have received the following notification of a potential road closure for November and December:

Location: A387 between Junction South West of Venton Vanes & the B3254 at Lime Kiln, Morval and the A387 between the B3252 and Bake Lane, Widegates may be closed between 16th November and 12th December 2012, 0800 to 1615 hours) for patching and surfacing works. Formal order not through yet.

Lynne Sutton

ADVENT WINDOWS

Advent Sunday is 2nd December this year. People prepare for Christmas in different ways, depending on what it means to each of us. Advent Windows allow us each to do our own thing, but together. To make it work around the parish, we need a number of people, perhaps working with a neighbour, to do this:

1. Choose one of the days of Advent, and a time of day that suits you (preferably when it is getting dark)
2. Decorate a window, a porch, or part of your garden or drive with a Christmas theme
3. Invite some friends to gather by your Christmas display and sing a song or carol of your choice, or read a poem
4. Provide a mince pie and a cup of tea/mulled wine etc

You can keep it low key by just inviting a few people, or include your day on a list that will go in December's Outlook and on parish notice boards. Either way, please contact Maggie Willmott on 01503 240218 if you would like to take part.

TRENODE SCHOOL MESSY CHURCH

By the time you are reading this we will have held our first Messy Church at Trenode School! Hopefully an exciting and inspiring time was had by all! A more detailed report will follow in the December edition. A date for your diaries is the November session which will be on Friday 23rd November 3.30-5pm. This session will have an Advent theme with some lovely Festive crafts, songs, nibbles and Worship. Please come along and join in the fun!

For further details please contact Helen Priestley (email: hpriestley.78@btinternet.com, Tel 241188), Maggie Willmott or Revd Philip Sharp.

TRENODE C OF E VA SCHOOL

The School Council organised a Fair Trade Cake Sale and raised a terrific £70 from the cakes donated by the children and their families. This was a great event, raising money as well as awareness of the Fair Trade movement.

Our Harvest Festival focused on the Dr Seuss story The Lorax. This thought provoking tale deepened the children's understanding of environmental issues and the need for us all to look after the beautiful world in which we live. A trip to the cinema to see the film version followed our own performance.

If you have collected any Morrisons vouchers and were wondering what to do with them you can drop them in to school. In the past few years we have used vouchers to "buy" seeds, tools and raised beds for our edible garden.

We are also collecting used textiles (clothing, bedding, curtains etc) which the PTFA sell to raise funds for the school. Our last collection raised an amazing £200.

We look forward excitedly to our first Messy Church event at the end of this half term. It should be lots of fun!

To find out more about what is happening at school go online and find us at : www.trenode.cornwall.sch.uk.

Mrs Lindsay. Headteacher

STOP PRESS There are still places available on a FUN afternoon of CAKE COFFEE TEA and CHAT MONDAYS 1-30 to 3-30. If you are an adult guardian, family member, of a child at Trenode school and would like to help them to read at home but lack the confidence or have questions you would like to ask these sessions are FOR YOU. NO CHARGE. Come once for a WARM WELCOME and see if YOU ENJOY the afternoon. Sessions are hosted by Mrs Gordon and Phil who comes up from Truro because he likes running adult groups. Just looking at pictures with a child is a huge help for them.

POLICE & CRIME COMMISSIONER (PCC) ELECTIONS

15th November 2012

On 15 November 2012, the public will elect a PCC, who will be accountable for how crime is tackled in Devon, Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly. The duty of the PCC will be to ensure that Devon & Cornwall Constabulary is providing an efficient and effective service on behalf of the public. The PCC will be responsible for setting the strategic priorities, working with partners to prevent and tackle crime, ensuring that public priorities are acted upon, and ensuring value for money. They will also be responsible for appointing and, if necessary, dismissing the Chief Constable.

The arrival of a PCC in forces across the country will mark the end of the work of police authorities which will cease to exist when the elected PCC takes on the role on 22 November 2012. The PCC election will take place on Thursday 15 November 2012. Candidates will be announced from 26th October and you can search for those standing for election in our police force area on the following website www.choosemypcc.org.uk/. The elections across Devon, Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly are being co-ordinated by Cornwall Council. You can read more about the electoral process on their website. If you would like to read the Government's information about PCC's please visit the Home Office website (www.homeoffice.gov.uk/police/police-crime-commissioners/).

WIT & WISDOM

Prayer of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen

POEM OF THE MONTH

Alpha and Omega

Advocate in Heaven,
Benefactor of the lowly,
Comforter of the faithful,
Defender of the helpless and the meek:
Emmanuel by sages called,
Forgiver of our trespasses,
Guardian against pride,
Healer of sickness and sin.
Immortal Son, seated at the right hand of the Father,
Jehovah – Lord God Almighty;
King of kings sent from on high,
Light of all lights to illumine every darkness:
Most merciful Saviour,
No secrets from You are hidden,
Open our hearts to salvation.
Penitent and humble is Your servant,
Quaking beneath Your tender mercy,
Rowing through the tempests,
Seeking the eternal haven,
Travelling to the way of peace,
Until the Kingdom of Heaven is reached;
Virgin-born, child of Mary,
Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit –
Xristus: whose word is life, angels sing Your glory,
You are the living Word of the Father:
Zion resounds with voices singing Your praise!
