PARISH NEWS

Hello Everyone

Morval Parish Council is pleased to announce that it now has its own website which can be accessed at: www.morvalparishcouncil.org.uk

Please be patient as there is a great amount of information that still needs to be uploaded to the site. Any community group wishing to have its details included on the site can do so by contacting the clerk directly or by completing an enquiries form on the website itself.

The council is also pleased to be able to announce that the defaced road sign for Morview Road has now been replaced. It offers its thanks to the resident who initially brought the matter to its attention.

The council is aware that work continues on reducing the likelihood of flooding at Sandplace. Currently, to progress this matter, BT's copper experts need to move its wire from the old duct to a new duct. Once this is completed, measures required to reduce the likelihood of flooding can be continued.

The council is currently investigating the viability of having two bus shelters erected at Nomansland and the relocation of the bus stop for travelling towards Looe to a spot that may offer a reduction in risk when using it. Currently, and following a recent meeting between the relevant authorities and appropriate agencies a professional opinion on both matters is being sought from the Highways Department.

MORVAL PARISH SUMMER FAIR

SUNDAY 19TH JULY

Everyone is invited to the Summer Fair on the afternoon of Sunday 19th July, starting at 2pm and kindly hosted again in the grounds of Metherell Gard. It promises to be another very happy occasion, with a fun run, cream teas and a barbecue, live music, cake, plant, bric-a-brac and various craft stalls plus traditional games and activities for adults and children.

Please get in touch with Hayley on 240298 if you would like to help by baking scones, helping on a stall or in any other way. If you would like to donate raffle or tombola prizes or cakes, they can be brought to church or to Channel View, Widegates, or, on Mondays and Fridays, to Annie's Cutting Corner, or get in touch on 240218 if you would like anything to be collected. Thank you.

WIDEGATES SONGS OF PRAISE

FRIDAY AUGUST 21ST 6PM

This is for anyone who enjoys a good sing! Please come along and choose your favourite hymns, old or new. There will be a selection of hymn books and a willing keyboard player who will do her best to meet all your requests. Depending on the weather, we will be on the Green or in the Hall.

TRENODE C OF E VA SCHOOL

Life in school has a beautiful rhythmical pattern and one highlight always seems to give way to the next. The school year has passed very quickly indeed. As they say time flies when you are having fun.

Developing the performing arts is a particular strength here at Trenode. Through the year it has been wonderful to see the talents of the children grow and flourish. At Christmas time we enjoyed the Christingle Service at St Wenna's and held our Nativity play in School. The children also worked hard to perform the Snow Queen. During the Spring Term we held "Trenode's Got Talent" and this term we are working towards our Summer Show – Ali Baba and the Bongo Bandits. The children would like to invite any senior citizens to school to enjoy some songs from the Summer Show followed by a cream tea. This free event will take place on Friday 10th July at 2.00pm. If you would like to come along please contact the school (01503 240235). We would love to see you.

The children have benefitted from having marvellous and varied school grounds. The school garden continues to flourish. Our huge field is an excellent space for playing in, as well as a valuable asset for PE lessons. This term we have also visited Tencreek Pool to do swimming lessons.

The whole school has benefitted greatly from the continued support of our very active PTFA and committed Governors who help to ensure that the children have the very best learning opportunities available. I thank them for their very hard work.

We have recently had a SIAMS (Statutory Inspection of Anglican and Methodist Schools). This is an in depth look at our life as a church school. The inspection explores and grades our ability to meet the needs of our learners in our Christian context. We are very pleased to announce that we have been graded as "good". If you would like to read the full report it is on the school website.

We are always seeking new and innovative ways to engage the children in their learning, which makes working in school an exciting place to be. If you would like to find out more about school life we would be delighted to welcome you. Please contact us on 01503 240235 to arrange an appointment. Alternatively you might like to follow what we are doing on the school website <http://www.trenode.cornwall.sch.uk>.

TRENODE MESSY CHURCH

Trenode Messy Church - and MESSY WIDEGATES!!

Such has been the amazing success of Trenode Messy Church that additional funding has been secured to bring Messy Church to the village! Thanks to the generosity of the Community Chest Fund and Cllr Candy we will be holding Messy Widegates in the Reading Rooms in the Summer Holidays on Friday 24th July and Friday 28th August 3.30-5pm. Not only will there be lots of crafting activities and hotdogs but we will also have some great giant outdoor activities to trial on the Green (weather dependant otherwise in the hall!). Trenode Messy Church will continue in term time on the 4th Friday of the month in addition to this with the first one of the term being Friday 25th September. For further details regarding Messy Church please contact Helen on 01503 241188 or email hpriestley.78@btinternet.com.

CHURCHES TOGETHER (Looe & District - Morval)

The Churches Together tent at the Royal Cornwall Show once again provided shelter, refreshments and hospitality in abundance and was well supported for the duration of the show. Thanks go to all those who volunteered to help in the tent. On Sunday 6th September there will be a Lammas Service at St Wenna at 4pm - all are welcome at this popular service. If you are interested in becoming involved in Churches Together work please contact Helen Priestley Tel 241188

OCEAN'S WANDERER

The enchantress speaks:

Softly –

Unfurl your canvas wide and white.

Catch the breathing North-wind, cool and crisp,

And at the wind's touch plunge away

And ride the nacreous water.

Boldly –

Fracture, strew and slice with sickle prow

The molten startled waves of sacred blue,

And as the sheaves of sea rise, fall, and ebb away

So cross that vast profound.

Slowly –

Beyond the gilt dawn's tender gold

Find where grows the melancholy poplar groves

And fruitless willows, wan and drear,

Of gloomy Aidoneus' jewel-encrusted bride.

Gently –

Forward ease your sturdy vessel on

Through the bulrush-black dishevelled night

And there amongst the feral silence

Find truth from the disconsolate dead.

The prophet foretells:

So, you have unfurled your canvas white

And caught the North-wind crisp.

The molten waves of blue were sliced in sheaves

For you have ventured far beyond the gold-bright dawn.

Here rapid shadows of dishevelled night abound

For you have left the cheerful day.

But neither the stinging lash of harsh defeat

Nor these unhallowed halls hold fear when seeking truth.

So wanderer, know this then.

That after life's long tempestuous voyage

Death shall find you gently and in peace,

Remote from ocean.

ON THE LOW SPRING TIDE AT DOWNDERRY

September 20th 2009

or

Standing in the Engine Room of the Universe

She wore a sparkling dress that glistened in the sun,
The rustle of her skirts, as regular as breathing,
The folds of her hem show a little flash of lace
So gentle today, no rush, no noisy haste

Two days ago, the moon and sun had danced together
The moon with its back to us and
Jointly they had pulled her dancing, further out
And turning, dancing further in as well.

Now her gentle movement slows, dancing neither in nor out
Then, at the allotted time, predicted years ago,
and to the very minute, she starts to turn as a billion tonnes of water sway back from where they went

In six hours time or so, she will reach higher up the beach than at any time since the moon last turned her back,
and clean the surface of the sand; weed and flotsam pushed away, the monthly rondo done.
