Parish Councillor Vacancy

As a Parish Councillor you have a great opportunity to Support your Community. Previous experience is not required, but a desire to make a difference does. Your commitment is to attend a monthly meeting and represent the local community in decision making that can influence all. Support and training is available. You can do it, so why not give it a try?

If interested, please contact the Parish Clerk, by 6th May, who will be very happy to provide more information. Tel. 01872 500995

Bridle path open

The bridleway from Trevereia to Trelowia in St Martin-in - Looe and Deviock parishes has reopened after a closure of 3 years. Cormac have done a wonderful job in upgrading this silver rated bridleway. For those who use it please remember this track goes through a working farm. Shut all gates behind you, don't disturb livestock keep dogs on a lead. This is an excellent off-road riding; please respect it
Lynne Burt, Rights of way Officer, St Martin-by-Looe P.C.

June, Meriel Kitson (9th), Bridget MacArthur (16th, 23rd), Mary Howes (30th)

The primroses in Morval Churchyard are spectacular and well worth a visit, as is the church. Sue Auger and the flower arrangers have created an amazing display of lilies (from donations from people in memory of loved ones), and complemented by the Easter garden.

Race for Life!

On 20th May 2018, myself and friends will take part in the Torbay Race for Life 5k in support of Cancer Research UK, in memory of our dear friend Chloe, who passed away in January, aged just 22. Cancer Research needs public donations to fund medical advance. If you want to sponsor me, here's the link to my donation page.

Thank you very much! Hayley Moore

Bacon Bap

Nina and Christian want to thank everyone for supporting their Bacon Bap & Coffee Morning in Widegates Reading Room, which raised over £300 for The Royal British Legion and Alzheimer's Society. Many thanks to Cornish Tea, Westcountry Bakery and Davey's Cracking Good Eggs for kindly donating their goods.

They are also running the London Marathon on Sun 22nd April for these charities. If you want to support them, you can donate online:

Hessenford WI

At our last meeting, we dealt with a lot of business and our new President, Jackie Holland, read a selection of her own amusing poems. The grand conclusion was the cake made by Jackie, for our 85th anniversary. Celebrations continue in Hessenford Church's May Flower Festival.

In March Angela Thorpe hosted a lunch in Widegates Reading Room for Donderry's Memory Cafe. The Copley Arms provided a fantastic lunch which was much enjoyed, with much chatter, laughter and high spirits.

Widegates Reading Room Christmas Tree and Lights

Despite hard work by the Committee and other volunteers over the Christmas period, there were some complaints about the Christmas Tree on The Green and the flashing Christmas Tree Lights. The Committee has now decided they would hand this job over to any of the residents who may like to get together and take on this task.

Ladies at Leisure

The Ladies of Leisure's March meeting was at the Cuddy Shack. Tasty lunch, lively chatter, and a decision... 24th April: a visit and lunch at Endsleigh Garden Centre, with hopefully good weather.

A variety of ideas for future outings and get togethers were talked about so if you have anything you would like to do, places to go and would like company, come along to Ladies at Leisure midday at Widegates Village Hall on the last Tuesday of the month. This will change if an outing is planned so if you are interested in joining us please talk to Barbara (241169), Helen (241148) or Jane (230393).

Can't spare time during the day, then join us at the Knit and Natter evenings. Not a lot of knitting but plenty of nattering and laughter, while we enjoy trying a variety of crafts from cake decorating to patchwork, crochet to glass painting. You suggest it we will try it. Meetings held 7pm 2nd Tuesday and last Thursday of the month at Widegates Village Hall. For more information ring Barbara (241169)
