Tue 15th Feb: Save Your Village Hall meeting, WRR, 7pm

Morval NDP is legally compliant!

We're getting near to the end of the NDP project! The Morval NDP (and the supporting documents), have been submitted to Cornwall Council, and our NDP has been assessed as legally compliant, meaning that doesn't contradict any restrictions with the Act of Parliament which applies to NDPs, and it is in harmony with the Cornwall Local Plan. After some additional consultation, the next stage is for approval by an Independent Assessor (who will check that all has been done correctly) and finally the Parish Referendum.

SAVE YOUR VILLAGE HALL

Widegates Reading Room and Village Hall is currently CLOSED, if action isn't taken this will be permanent. A minimum of 6 committee members are needed, including Secretary and Treasurer.

A Special General Meeting will be held on Tuesday 15th February, 7pm
at the Village Hall.

Calling all creative people!

You are all invited to take part in two creative projects hosted by St Wenna's church.

The first is for crafters, artists and flower arrangers to use the shape of the cross as a basis for whatever you would like to make. It needn't be "religious" at all, in fact the greater the variety the better. It would be brilliant to have children join in too – let your imaginations run wild! All these creations will be displayed in an informal exhibition with refreshments in church over the Easter weekend.

The second is to create a new community altar frontal as our jubilee project. We are hoping to assemble individual fabric panels representing personal, local or royal themes that will be a lasting record of everything that is important to people in our parish now.

Please do think about what you could create with embroidery, applique, tapestry, weaving, fabric dyeing, crochet, knitting etc to be part of this project.
