New Vicar and New Benefice

We are delighted to welcome Rev'd Ben Morgan Lundie to our church and community. Ben was licensed on 11th April to the parishes of Looe, Morval, Duloe and Herodsfoot. He writes:

Celebrating Easter

How did you spend the Easter weekend? Everyone has their own traditions, and I am sure that most of us enjoyed the sunshine and dry weather over the Bank holiday.

For millions of Christians all around the world, celebrating Easter marks the most profound event that has ever happened in all of human history. It is the time that we remember the crucifixion of Jesus on Good Friday and celebrate his resurrection on Easter Sunday. It is a time of contrasts – his death a sobering reminder of human brokenness and God's suffering for us, moving into his resurrection as a symbol of hope, new life and the joy that by faith in Christ we can be called the children of God.

This Easter was important to me personally, to my faith and identity as a Christian. This Easter also marked the beginning of my ministry here as the priest in charge for the parishes of Morval, Looe, Duloe, and Herodsfoot. As well as leading and encouraging others to minister across our four parishes and five Churches, I am also here for the community – to pray for you, to mourn and celebrate with you, and to bring the resurrection hope of Jesus as a reality to our community.

And so I look forward to meeting you, and please know that as a community you are in my prayers.

Revd. Ben Morgan Lundie

Cross Crafts

Many thanks to all who contributed to the Cross Crafts project in St Wenna's, either by creating something or by visiting the exhibition on Saturday and Monday of the Easter weekend. The wide range of creative techniques on show was greatly appreciated, and we are particularly grateful to the children who took part. The £45 raised has been donated to the Disasters Emergency Committee's Ukraine Appeal.

MORVAL Parish Councillors heard with some frustration that improvements to the Tredinnick (Farm Shop) road junction were unlikely in the near future.

The parish's Cornwall Councillor, Armand Toms, had raised the matter with Cornwall Highways after being approached about the dangers to traffic, especially when exiting the farm shop lane on to the main Hessenford to Looe road (A387/B3253). He took up the matter with Will Glassup, Cormac Solutions Ltd's highways and environment manager, telling him many residents felt that a mirror at the junction would improve safety.

But the reply from Mr Glassup, who grew up in the local Looe area, suggested that any improvements were unlikely at this time.

Wrote Mr Glassup: 'This has always been a cautious junction and has been reported many times.

'It does not have a high accident record (no accidents reported since 2016), however visibility is reduced if you approach it wrong.

'The current policy is that mirrors should not be located within the limits of the highway as although a mirror may seem a positive help, they present a hazard to the driver passing on the main road, especially after dark when the sudden appearance of reflected headlights can cause the driver to take dangerous and unnecessary avoiding action.

'Although we do acknowledge that there are a number of mirrors located on private land across the Network we do not provide mirrors for the reasons above.'

He added: 'Any changes or enhancements to the current signage would require funding – I would nominate this junction under the CNP HS (Community Network Panel Highways Schemes) for consideration in future years.'

Reluctantly, the Parish Council accepted the response. But the chairman said he would be interested to know the accident record of junctions with private mirrors, to see if the county's 'hazard' fears could be substantiated by facts and figures.

THESE are your Parish Councillors...

John Collings (chairman), Andy Jackson (vice-chairman), Jasmine Fullalove, Stuart Hutchins, Andy Kennedy, Debra Kirkland, John Kitson, Clive Pearn, Ben Pengelly and Graham Tamblyn.

The Council meets at Widegates Village Hall at 7.00 pm on the first Wednesday of the month and all meetings are open to members of the public. There is also www.morvalparishcouncil.org.uk – where you can find much more information.

Well done Steph!

Congratulations to Stephanie Rice who completed the Cardiff half marathon on Sunday 27th March in memory of her Dad, Kevin Rice.

Steph completed in 2 hrs and 29 minutes! Steph raised £460.00 for Macmillan Cancer support. On behalf of all the parish, a huge well done for your amazing achievement!

Morval NDP update – The consultation by Cornwall Council concluded on 22nd April and we are now awaiting feedback.
