Morval parishioners to vote on the Morval NDP

Thursday 24th November is the date of the Morval NDP referendum when parishioners can vote on whether or not they want the Morval Neighbourhood Development Plan to be a legal part of planning law

As in a general election, parishioners will be sent a polling card, explaining how and where to vote, and voters also have the option to vote by post or by proxy. More information is online on the Morval NDP part of the parish website (www.morvalwidegates.weebly.com) or you can speak to the Council Elections Team on 0300 1231115.

There are different deadlines for different functions:

- Registration Tues 8 November
- Postal Vote Applications 5pm Wed 9 November
- Proxy Vote Applications 5pm Wed 16 November
- Emergency Proxy Vote Applications 5pm Thurs 24 November

Allow for postal delays. There's no need to re-apply if you already have a proxy / postal vote unless you need to update your details.

Finally, parishioners are key people in the NDP process, so whether you vote Yes or No, please do vote in the Morval NDP referendum.

Reflections on Queen Elizabeth's passing

The weeks after her death saw an extraordinary outpouring of grief for Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth. We saw it in the Royal family – King Charles and his siblings, the scenes at Balmoral, Edinburgh, Buckingham Palace, Westminster, Windsor and around the world.

Each of us will have a reason for our sadness for someone who in a unique and amazing way lead this country and the Commonwealth for over 70 years, and also affection – a love for the Queen. The Queen throughout her life has been very public about her faith in Jesus Christ. She says this of Jesus: 'I hope that, like me, you will be comforted by the example of Jesus of Nazareth who, often in circumstances of great adversity, managed to live an outgoing, unselfish and sacrificial life ... He makes it clear that genuine human happiness and satisfaction lie more in giving than receiving; more in serving than in being served.'

She put her trust in him, she knew that she was loved by him, and she is now at peace. Know that Jesus longs to be with each of us, and my prayer for you is that you may know his presence and his comfort in your life.

Wonderful Vintage Tea Party

Thank you to everyone who attended, what turned out to be a wonderful Vintage Tea. Raising in aid of the local food bank a total of £450 (£243 on the day plus a private donation). The food bank said they would be able to put the money to good use. Widegates does it again!

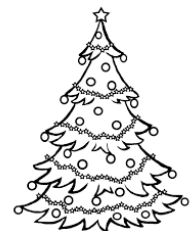

Christmas Tree Festival at St Wenna's 12th to 18th December

We are hoping to involve as many local organisations as possible in this year's festival; if you would like to take part but have not yet been contacted, please get in touch with Maggie Willmott on 01503 240218 maggiemwillmott@gmail.com and a letter with all the details will be sent to you. There will be a short informal dedication service on Sunday 11th December at 4pm, and the festival will run until the Carol Service at 4pm on Sunday 18th. On Saturday 17th there will be an opportunity for local crafters to run stalls – again, please get in touch if you would like to be involved.

Harvest Festival at St Wenna's

Our Harvest celebrations started on Tuesday 11th October with a lovely service led by Trenode school and not one, but two vicars, Ben and Clive. The children had prepared songs, prayers and a Harvest poem, which they presented with their usual confidence and enthusiasm to a big congregation of family and friends. An enormous pile of tins and packets for Foodbank was gathered at this service, and added to over the weekend. Saturday evening, in a church beautifully decorated with floral displays and locally grown vegetables and fruit, saw a very well attended concert of Cornish music by Ilow Splann, including a retelling of the ancient story of St Wenna. This was followed by a generous Harvest Supper which included donations from Cornish Gouda, Tredinnick Farm Shop, Cornish Orchards and Warrens plus pasties provided at cost by Barbican Bakery.

The bells were rung before the special Celtic Harvest Festival Communion service on Sunday morning, which started with a presentation, by Liskeard Arts Society, of the bound volumes created over a period of two years detailing everything in the church – a truly impressive piece of work. After the service, the flowers and fresh food were bought by donation, raising over £90 in cash for the Liskeard and Looe Foodbank along with the 85kg of tins and packets, all delivered to the Liskeard depot on Monday.

Duchy Defibrillators

FREE Defibrillator Training

ALL WELCOME

Widegates Village Hall

Wednesday, November 23 (7.00 – 8.30pm)

You may be aware that the Parish Council currently has three defibrillators in our Parish. Why not come along and learn how to use them, just in case of emergency?

ROAD safety matters were once again utmost in the minds of parish councillors at their monthly meeting.

Another spate of accidents had galvanised pleas for speed limits to be lowered, and Cornwall councillor Armand Toms has called for a blanket 40-mph limit on parish roads, with the possibility of adding Widegates village to the '20's plenty' county roll-out scheme.

The parish council will now join with neighbouring councils in pursuing further ways of reducing the accident toll.

Undeterred by the County Council's Community Network Panel's recent refusal to back other highways initiatives, the parish council will again seek funding for two projects.

Councillors want dragon's or shark's teeth markings at the western end of Widegates village and dropped kerbs on the Morview estate.

When these were rejected in the last round of funding, Highways put the costs at £3,000 and £5,000 respectively – figures which alarmed some councillors.

And while Cornwall Council has agreed to erect an 'Unsuitable for Caravans' sign at the Bindown shop end of the unclassified road past the Golf Club, the parish has still been unsuccessful in getting an official 'Morval' road sign at Wringworthy to replace the 'hand-made' one currently in situ.

The Community Network Panel, which rejected the 'Morval' sign bid for funding, was told a replacement would cost £3,000.
