EDITORIAL

Ask not for whom the Bell Tolls, it Tolls for thee. A Parish is not just a geographical area it is also a group of people of diverse ages. This spring, our Parish lost three people who contributed so much in their generation. Peter Tamblyn, St Wenna's Church warden for so many years, he was awarded the title of Church Warden Emeritus. Sally Walker, whose contribution to Trenode School was so great that a special day was dedicated to her this term. Finally many people will remember Norman Lowe, who with his wife Kathleen gave the beautiful books of Common Worship used for Holy Communion at St Wenna's, and were great supporters of the Church and Parish.

The BIG APPLE. Trenode Parent, teachers, and friends are after your windfalls and any other apples going spare. There will be a collection point inside the gates of Trenode School from the beginning of term on. This year don't let the slugs get your apples, get them to Trenode.

PARISH NEWS

"Hello Everyone

After the parish council meeting in July the council will not meet again until the 3rd September unless it is required to do so in order to meet a deadline. Anybody wishing to bring matters to the council's attention in the meantime can do so by contacting me on 01579 326152.

The parish council is currently aware of several issues around the parish relating to transport and the highways and continues to work hard to resolve them.

PCSO Cocks requested at the council meeting held at the start of June for people to remain vigilant and report anything or anyone that appears suspicious to the police.

The asset transfer of the "Village Green" continues and currently the council is awaiting details of the Notice that must be served to enable it to proceed.

CHURCHES TOGETHER (LOOE & DISTRICT - MORVAL)

On 1st June, on a breezy but sunny afternoon, Carole Vivian of Trelawne Barton, Pelynt hosted Cream Teas in her house and garden. A very sociable and relaxing time was spent, getting through a good few scones cream and jam by a fair sized gathering from all churches. £131.00 was raised for the work of Chuches Together in the area. Many thanks go to Carole Vivian for her hard work and hospitality.

Churches Together Cornwall had a pasty supper on 5th June, in their tent at the Royal Cornwall Show after the pre-show service in the Main Arena led by the new Suffragan Bishop of St. German's, Rt. Rev. Chris Goldsmith. During the show the tent was run by volunteers from all over the County including some from St. Wenna's. In its basic statement Churches Together Britain and Ireland says: :

'CT is ... an 'instrument' by which the churches journey towards full visible unity'.

This outreach at the Royal Cornwall is a demonstration of just this. The sun shone and many people visited.

Dates for your diary: 28th July Sunday 4 pm :
 Holiday Praise @ Talland Church
 1st September Sunday 4 pm:
 Lammas Service @ St. Wenna's, Morval

Look out for a date for a celebratory ecumenical service in Truro Cathedral later in the year.

CORNERSTONE continues to be open for a browse around bric-a-brac . Coffee/tea/cake available, with an opportunity to relax, looking out across the harbour. Some Fairtrade goods are for sale. All welcome.

All donations go towards Childrens' Charities in this area.

Opening hours: 10 am - 4 pm Mon - Fri

(Cornerstone situated in West Looe, is the outreach element of Churches Together Looe & District)

POEM OF THE MONTH

The Great Unfathomable

Who knows if that which we call day
Is but the night? The interplay
Of light on ordinary things
Is fleeting, fast and faint, and may

Just be the whirlwind wanton wings
Of stars; each fickle fire-flame flings
Across the darkness like that Light
Who from the east eternal springs.

Always the deep, dark-vaulted night
Yields to the dazzling-dance of white-
Horsed brightness that is day, and snow-
Tracked winter bows down at the sight

Of summer's greenlush growth; this flow
Sounds out a ringing bugle-blow
That all life ends, as day with sleep,
As smoke comes after candle-glow.

To light are brought things dark and deep
Whilst shadowmaze and midnight-steep
The gloom conceals the bright; wind quells
The raging-rant of storm-sea's leap

And sleep binds to let go. But dwells
There comfort in I AM: it spells –
Finds tongue – and speaks, shouts, sings the name,
And rings the name from song-swung bells.

All things are quenched like candle-flame:
Time seizes all, it stakes its claim,
As on the stake was staked that string
Cut as a tribute, bound for fame

To reign the courts as morning's king
So Hodie! now gladly sing
And flawless Angelus now ring –
Let flawless Angelus now ring, sing, swing!

TRENODE C OF E VA SCHOOL

The Summer term seems to be rushing by and before we know it the shops will be starting their “Back To School” promotions and it will be September already! As they say time flies when you are having fun! Another popular saying is that school days are the best days of your lives. Here at Trenode we endeavour to provide the children with lots of opportunities that not only will help them academically, but which are also fun and develop the whole child. It is important to us that regardless of each individual's talents we will provide opportunities which they enjoy. This term has been no exception.

There have been many sporting opportunities this term including athletics, swimming, cricket and Triathlon. We have linked with Looe and Menheniot Cricket Club and Stephen and Ben have visited us each week to teach cricket to all of the children. Everyone has also taken part in swimming lessons at Tencreek. We have participated in Area Sports at Liskeard Community School, coming a very close second in our section. The older children have also participated in a Triathlon in Bodmin where they ran, swam and cycled. We still have Sports Day to look forward to.

We have also been working hard on polishing our performance of “Porridge!” a musical. All of the children, from the youngest to the oldest, have a part and they have put on a great performance. The children love to sing, dance and act and it is brilliant to see them perform in front of such appreciative audiences.

The garden is looking great and the school continues to show a big interest in learning about the environment. Our Key Hole garden is doing well and the lettuces and radishes love it! Class Two have been learning about the orchard environment and are taking part in the Kingfisher Award along with other local schools. The younger children are also off to the beach to learn about the sea shore under the guidance of Cornwall Wildlife Trust. The older children are visiting Carnyorth on their three day residential.

The PTFA continue to work tirelessly on our behalf and are organising another Bags 2 School collection of clothes, curtains etc for 23rd September. If you have any please drop them in to school.

As we look to September we will be welcoming lots of new families to our school family and we hope that they will all be very happy here.

I would like to say a personal thank you to everyone that has supported the school throughout the year – the children, families, staff, governors and members of the community. It is a real team effort that makes our school such a vibrant place. Thank you to you all.

To find out more about what is happening at school go online and find us at: www.trenode.cornwall.sch.uk.
