Annual Parish Meeting

To be held at Widegates Reading Room

On Wednesday 1st April, 2015

7.00pm to 7.20pm – Meet the council

(An opportunity to meet the parish councillors and catch up on parish related information)

7.20pm – Report from the Chair of the Council

7.30 pm – Parish Council Meeting begins

(Light refreshments will be available from 6.45 to 7.15pm)

The Annual Parish Meeting is for all parishioners so please feel welcome to come along and join in.

Hello Everyone

Announcement by Morval Parish Council - The Neighbourhood Plan

The Parish Council, at its meeting in February received a report from the Neighbourhood Plan Group which it needed to consider.

After several months of working hard to progress a Plan, the findings of the Group can be summarised as follows:

- Confines of existing legislation could mean that a genuine local plan is very difficult to achieve e.g. the Neighbourhood Plan process allows a community to identify where development should take place but it doesn't allow a community to prevent development altogether.

- Much of Cornwall Council's new housing targets for the local community network have, it would appear, been claimed already by other surrounding parishes meaning that a likelihood of a large new development within the parish is not as high as feared.
- Current planning guidelines alongside a robust and fair deliberation of all planning applications by the Parish Council appear sufficient at this time to ensure that the parish is not over developed.
- Despite best efforts and for a variety of reasons, the Group had difficulty in engaging all sectors of the parish so that a broad spectrum of views, opinions and ideas were obtained meaning there was always a danger that any Plan compiled may not be a true representation of the population of the parish as a whole.
- Any further work needed to progress the Plan would need to be carried out by a fresh group of volunteers as the current group, having already completed a major part of the initial leg work required, wishes to stand down.

In addition to the findings of the Group, the council remains mindful of the huge amount of work required to compile a Plan and the potential cost to the parish that this could create.

With all things considered, the Parish Council has taken the decision not to progress the Plan but, if for any reason, the need for one becomes apparent in the future, the council would be able to re-visit its decision.

It would like to thank the members of the Neighbourhood Plan Group for the time and effort that each has given to this piece of work and the members of the parish who completed the questionnaires produced by the Group.

Anybody wishing to see the Neighbourhood Plan Group's full report should contact the clerk.

MORVAL PARISH COUNCIL

Invitation to tender for grass cutting and maintenance of the flowerbed at Widegates “Village Green” for the period May 1st 2015 to March 31st 2016.

The Parish Council invites tenders to cut the grass in the area outlined and shaded on the attached map. The grass would require cutting on a two weekly basis during the months of May through to September with additional cuts being carried out pre-events if required and twice during the months of October through to April if required and weather permitting. The grass cuttings would need to be disposed of by the person awarded the contract.

Maintenance of the flower bed would be carried out on a monthly basis from May through to September and twice during the months of October through to April if required and weather permitting so that the border remains weed free and the shrubs pruned and maintained as necessary.

An observational check of trees and shrubs for structure damage would be required at the start of the contract and six monthly thereafter with potentially harmful shrubs or plants being identified at the same time.

The person awarded the contract will need to have adequate public liability, and evidence of this should be provided with a tender letter of application which includes a brief method statement of how this work would be carried out in a safe manner.

Any person wishing to receive a copy of the map, the specification for the work required or those wishing to apply should contact the parish clerk who can provide a specification sheet and further details if required. Applications should be returned to the Clerk by the 31st March 2015.

St Wenna Church electoral roll update for year 2015 -16; anyone wishing to submit their names for inclusion, please let Val Olver know as soon as possible and by the end of March at the latest on 01503 240439. If you would like a say in the decisions made for your church, now is the time to put your name forward. The Annual Parochial Church Meeting will be in church on Sunday 19th April at 12 noon, with coffee and biscuits, following the 11.00 service.

FOR SOFT THE WIND WHISPERS

The music sleeps ... the harp strings are now still
And nimble-fingered bards no more caress
The filaments of gold that once did thrill
Those shining souls who are by Awen blessed.

Alas! Brave Bran is gone ... the burst of light
Held once in ardent hand, that shining sword,
No more will answer to the morning bright
Nor gleam amongst the dark and savage horde.

And what of Branwen sweet – Does she still dance
On printless foot beside the shining shore?
Her heart is broken like the shattered lance
Which rusts beneath the dirt to shine no more.

Where is Rhiannon fair? She is asleep
Beside her faithful lord, at last at peace:
They do not hear the endless crashing deep
That rolls about them and will never cease.

Morrighan – Speak not of that fair Phantom Queen
Whose wounded heart begat relentless hate
Lest she torment more souls, who blessed have been
By Awen's flame, unto a dismal fate.
Those broken men endeavoured to unite
And shirk their bonds to overthrow despair;
They charged the tempest of that endless night
That bound fair Awen's flame in a foul snare;

Unwoven are the threads of Awen's fate
And in strong breezes still the flame it quakes
Impatient for a champion – And yet, wait;
For soft the wind whispers: the music wakes ...

“My family know what I want, so I needn’t bother with a will”

Well, actually, that’s totally irrelevant. If you don’t have a Will, the State has a Will for you, and that Will is named, ‘The Law of Intestacy’. It won’t take account of today’s complex family structures, but it will allow the treasury to take far more tax than is necessary. It does not allow for inflation or the cost of housing, so your spouse or partner could find him/herself in financial hardship, or even homeless in the worst case scenario.

The law of intestacy doesn’t include any charity – so if you wanted to leave a legacy to a particular charity, you really do need to give instructions in a Will. No will – no legacy to charity. It’s as easy as that.

A will can include protection of your home from being sold to pay for care fees, when protective clauses are included in conjunction with Severance of Tenancy; and it can be used to limit the effects of inheritance tax.

By making a will, you can make sure that your property is divided as you want it to be and you can give instructions for your funeral arrangements, which can be a big help to your family at a difficult time.

If you don’t make a Will, the job of sorting out your estate will fall to a close relative who may not be the best person for the job, or who may not want the extra responsibility when already struggling to deal with grief. And, as mentioned, there will be no gift to any charity.

To talk things through, give me a ring to arrange a home visit without obligation.

Have you written a Will?

Have you appointed Lasting Power of Attorney?

Have you protected your property by placing it in a Trust?

Do you have a pre-paid funeral plan?

Would equity release improve your quality of life?

GOD WILL PROVIDE

A GIRL brings her boyfriend home to meet her parents. After dinner, her mother tells her father, a business tycoon, to find out about the young man. He invites the boy to his study for green tea.

“So what are you plans?” the father asks the boy.

“I am a religious scholar and want to marry your daughter” he replies.

“A scholar,” the father says. “Admirable, but what will you do to provide a nice house for my daughter to live in, as she’s accustomed to?”

“I will study,” the young man replies, “and God will provide for us.”

“And how will you buy her a beautiful engagement ring, such as she deserves?” asks the father. “How will you support children?”

“Don’t worry, sir, God will provide,” replies the boy.

The conversation proceeds like this, and each time the father questions, the boy insists that God will provide.

Later, the mother asks: “How did it go?”

The father answers: “He has no job and no plans, but the good news is that he thinks I’m God.”
